

Exelis Inc. to Harris Corporation Name Change

Effective immediately, Exelis Inc. will change as follows: Harris Corporation. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved license authorizations.

Exelis has been granted an extension to December 31, 2015 to allow for exports of unshipped balances on licenses and continuation of the use of agreements and other authorizations under Exelis' registration code M29715.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Exelis Inc. will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Harris Corporation. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Exelis Inc. as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after July 31, 2015, identifying Exelis Inc. as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

All currently approved agreement held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. This change must be addressed in the next major amendment.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreements Officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the Agreements Officer has been notified.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.
