

AMS GROUP, INCORPORATED's ACQUISITION OF AERO INTERNATIONAL, INCORPORATED

Effective immediately, Aero International, Incorporated (Aero International) will now operate under the name of AMS Group, Incorporated (AMS Group) as the result of an acquisition. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls, Bureau of Political Military Affairs is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Aero International will not require an amendment to reflect the change to AMS Group. A copy of this web notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Aero International as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this web notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after February 28, 2015 identifying Aero International as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this web notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at the time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this acquisition. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying AMS Group will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice referencing this acquisition in the executed agreement.
