

Name Change for Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Division, United Technologies Corporation

Effective October 1, 2013, Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Division, United Technologies Corporation has been acquired by GenCorp Inc. (GenCorp), parent company to Aerojet-General Corporation. As a result, GenCorp merged Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne with Aerojet-General Corporation and the name has changed as follows: Aerojet Rocketdyne, Inc. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistance Secretary for Defense Trade Controls is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Division, United Technologies Corporation's previous name address will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Aerojet Rocketdyne, Inc. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Division, United Technologies Corporation on the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after November 30, 2013, identifying Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Division, United Technologies Corporation and/or its previous address on the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreements Officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the Agreements Officer has been notified.
