

Cassidian Saudi Limited Changing to Airbus Defence and Space Saudi Limited

Effective immediately, Cassidian Saudi Limited will change as follows: Airbus Defence and Space Saudi Limited. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect these changes, the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense Trade Controls is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for formal amendments to change currently approved authorizations. The amendment waiver does not apply to approved and/or pending agreements.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Cassidian Saudi Limited will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Airbus Defence and Space Saudi Limited. A copy of this web notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Cassidian Saudi Limited as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after February 28, 2015, identifying Cassidian Saudi Limited as a party to the license will be considered for returned without action for correction to the new name.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreements Officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the Agreements Officer has been notified.
