

Israel Military Industries Ltd. Changing to IMI Systems Ltd.

Effective immediately, Israel Military Industries Ltd (IMI) will change as follows: IMI Systems Ltd. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved license authorizations. The amendment waiver does not apply to approved or pending agreements.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Israel Military Industries Ltd. (IMI) will not require an amendment to reflect the change to IMI Systems Ltd. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Israel Military Industries Ltd. (IMI) as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after July 31, 2015, identifying Israel Military Industries Ltd. (IMI) on the license will be considered for return without action for correction.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreements Officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the Agreements Officer has been notified.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs at time of shipment.
