

Lockheed Martin UK Integrated Systems and Solutions Limited Changing to Lockheed Martin UK Limited

Effective January 1, 2014, Lockheed Martin UK Integrated Systems and Solutions Limited will change as follows: Lockheed Martin UK Limited. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistance Secretary of Defense Trade Controls is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved license authorizations. The amendment waiver does not include approved and/or pending agreements.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Lockheed Martin UK Integrated Systems and Solutions Limited will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Lockheed Martin UK Limited. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Lockheed Martin UK Integrated Systems and Solutions Limited as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after May 31, 2014, identifying Lockheed Martin UK Integrated Systems and Solutions Limited as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreements Officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the Agreements Officer has been notified.
